

Campbell Soup

The letter carriers' drive is this Saturday.

take the store's breads to a new level. Next week, the store will begin offering more than 20 varieties of breads and rolls, including hearty ryes, sourdoughs, brioches and baguettes. Depending on the type, the breads can take anywhere from 24 hours to 3 days to produce. The selection will vary somewhat each day. Prices will range from $2 to $5.

- SUSAN M. SELASKY

NEW BREAD, OLD-WORLD

STYLE: Holiday Market in Canton (520 S. Lilley Rd., 734-844-2200) will start offering Old-World-style breads made in the store's wood-fired oven. Owner John Pardington enlisted the help of bread maker Maurice Chaplais, a consultant from England. Chaplais has been at the store for the past two weeks showing head baker Bob Carter and Pardington how to make better artisanal breads.

Pardington says he always thought the store produced wonderful breads. Now, he says, the tips and techniques Chaplais taught them will

On freep.com
Win tickets to Bob Seger at the Palace.

Take a look at the most expensive homes sold in metro Detroit in 2010.

AUCTION RECORD: Warhol nets $38.4M. 4D

NAMES & FACES: Bristol Palin's new look. 4D

GARDENING: The stink bugs are coming. 5D

WWW.FREEP.COM THURSDAY, MAY 12, 2011

Detroit Free Press
LIFE

313-222-5610 features@freepress.com